Reflections ...

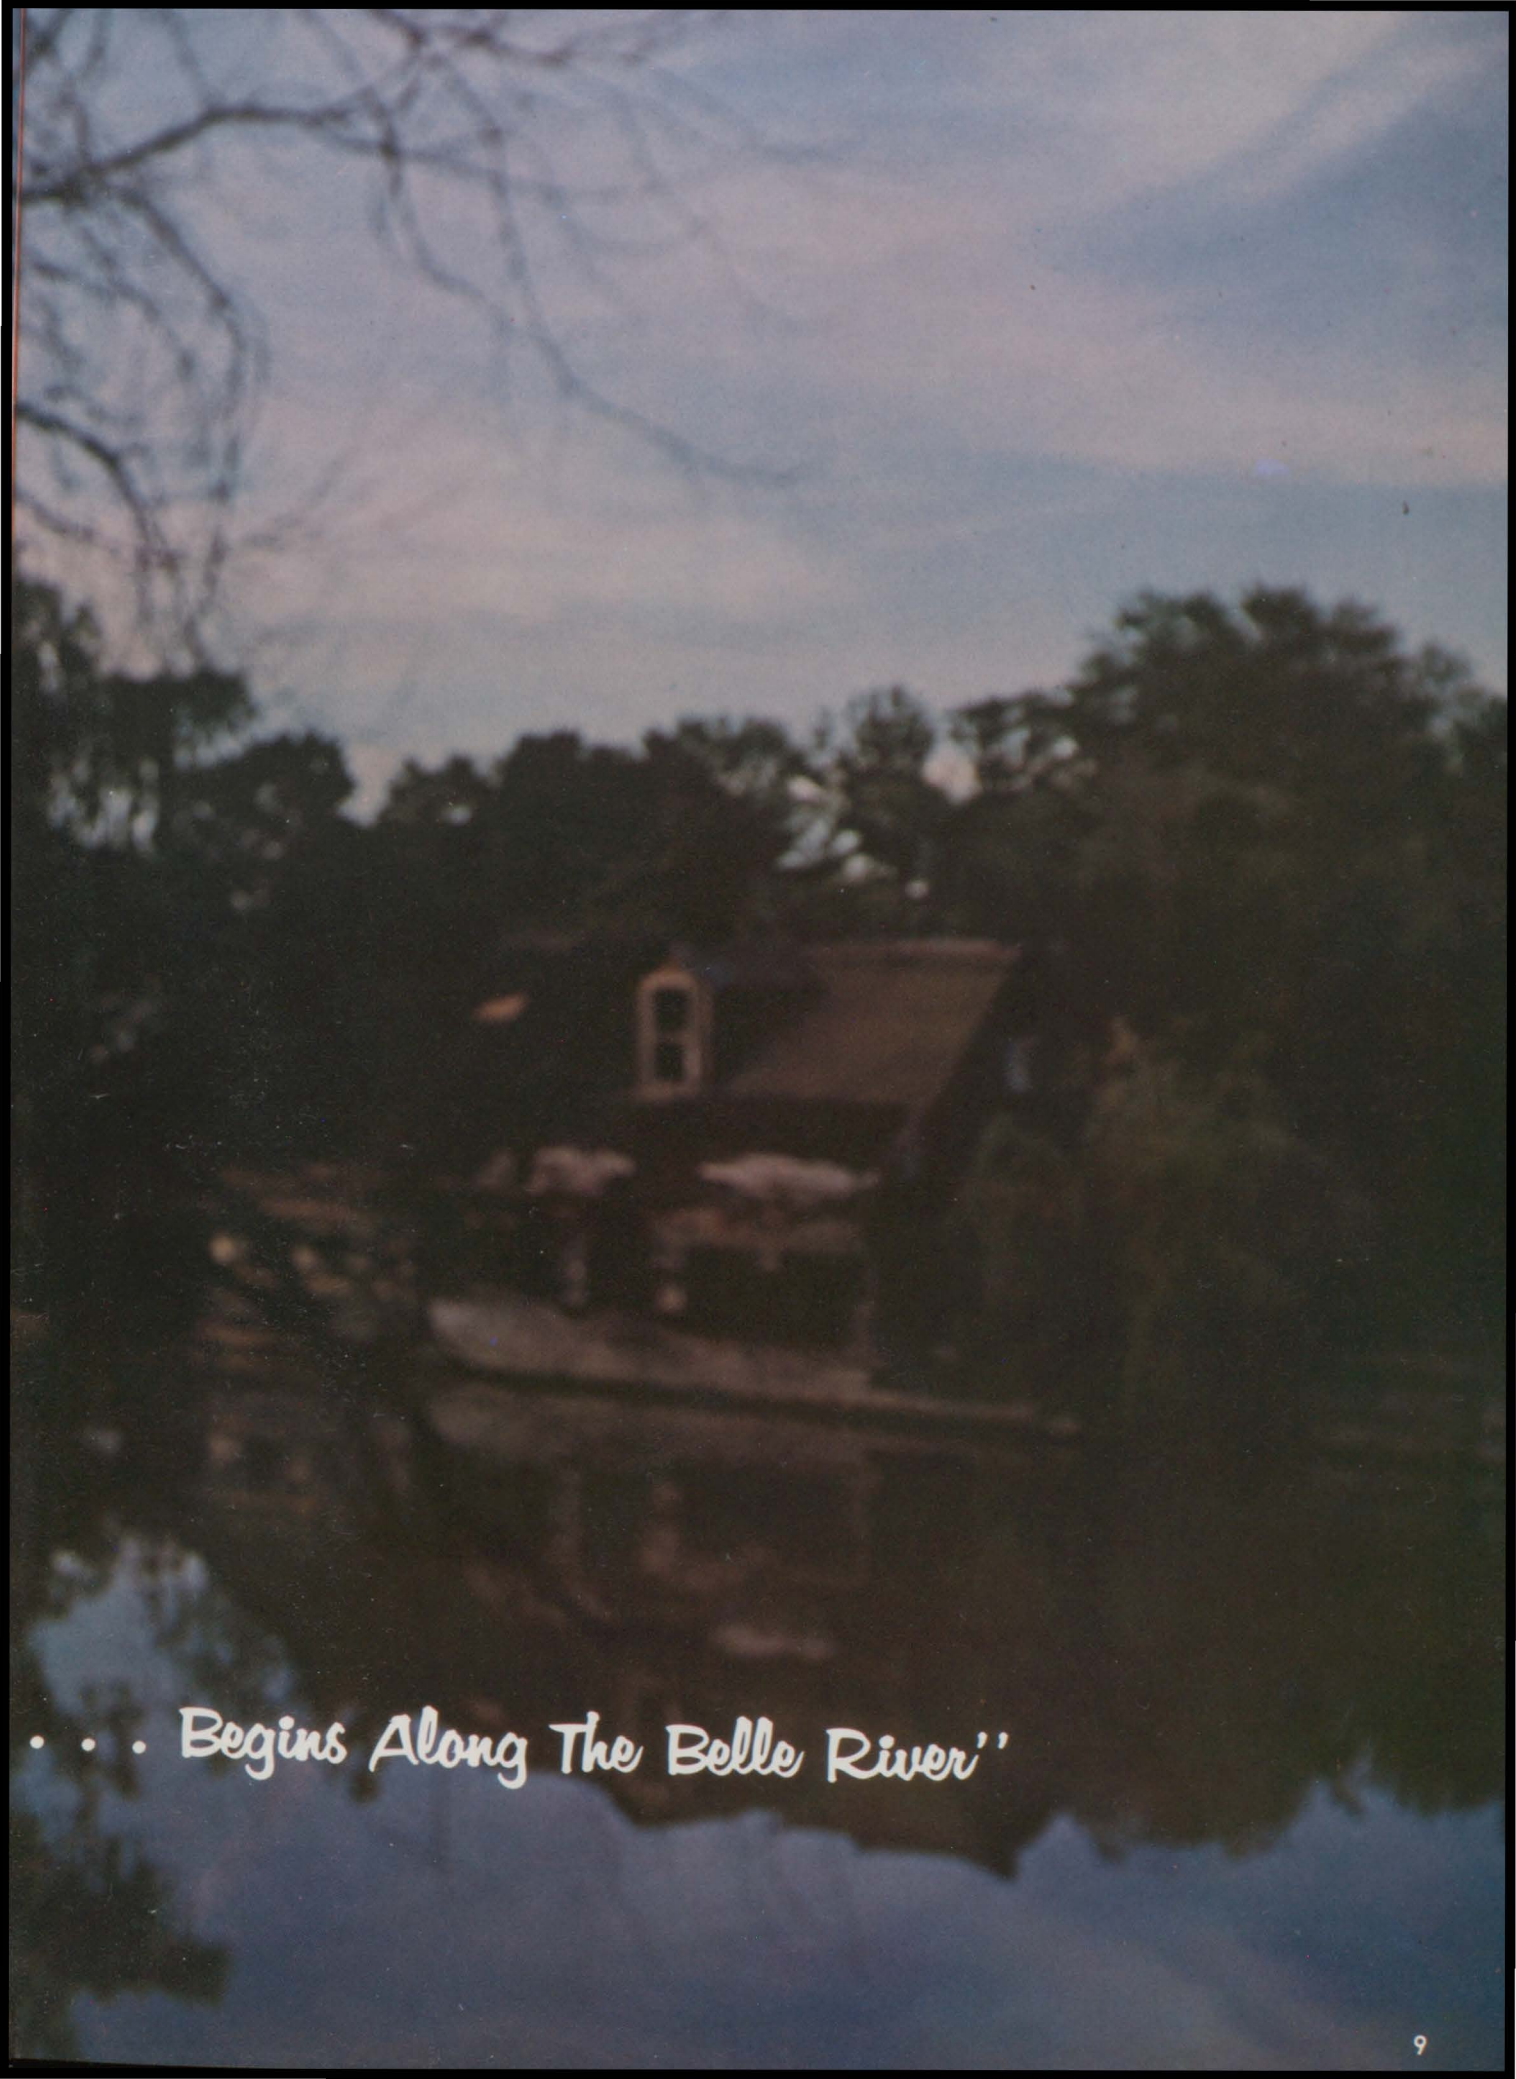

The year of '68-'69 is the year of ... sadness ... with its assassinations ... joy ... pennant and series ... disgust ... adult behavior at the conventions ... excitement ... elections ... homecoming and political ... anxiety ... report cards ... dates ... prom ... graduation ... and confidence ... WE HAVE OUR YOUTH ... OUR IDEALS ... AND WE SHALL GO FORTH UNAFRAID! ...

Mr. John Oles

We, of Marine City High School, welcome aboard our new principal and "Captain" of the good ship "Mariner."

Mr. Oles comes to us from Avondale High School near Detroit, where he served as Attendance Officer. For being a newcomer to modular scheduling, Mr. Oles has adapted to it very well ... (meaning he no longer refers to class hours as being "periods," and now calls them "mods")

All kidding aside, we know and understand many of the problems that Mr. Oles has faced this year, and we salute him for his capable leadership and responsiveness to our high school.

Umm ... step into the office please!

Food Service

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Chiti, Mrs. Nichols, and Mrs. Warwick prepare for the hungry hordes of young people every day. Along with the high school, meals are transported every day by Augie to the elementary schools.

This year we are fortunate in having Mrs. Wesbrook and Mrs. Lutz with us to supervise the eating area, thus enabling the teachers to have a well deserved, uninterrupted (sometimes) lunch.

This is the first year that Marine City has had a regular girls' basketball team in many years. The girls played four games in interscholastic competition and did very well. They lost their first game in a real squeaker to Cros-Lex, by only 3 points, which Cros-Lex scored in the last 10 seconds of the game. The girls came roaring back the very next week and defeated Port Huron Catholic. A stale Wednesday led to a loss to arch-rival St. Clair High School the following week. After a two week layoff due to the Sportsday Tournaments that G.A.A. hosted, the Mariner gals reached their peak of perfection by ending the season with a 35 - 17 triumph over cross-town Holy Cross.

Exchange Student

Mr. Harvey, Maren Klentze, Mrs. Harris, Judy Cyrowski

I am very glad to have the opportunity to tell you, how much I like to be a exchange student at M.C.H.S. I know that being an exchange student will be the greatest experience, I'll ever have and each of you have a part in it. I am sure it would not have turned out for me this good, if all of you would not have been so friendly to me. I am very happy to be able to make so many friends in this country, because I believe that the relationship between the U.S. and Germany will be a lot better, if the kids know each other. I will never forget all the fun I had together with all my friends at our games, dances, at homecoming, in band, in the ski-club, or even up town.

Thanks a lot for this good year,

Maren Klentze

Maren sings Christmas Carols with the Spanish class.

Other members who are with Maren are; Connie Biskner, Maren, Lorel Hauke, Chris Carrier, and Betty Duchane.

Modular scheduling means finding a quiet place to study. This is sometimes hard to do, but Maren seems to know where to find one.

Maren is discussing the band concert with some friends ... but then it may be something entirely different ...???

In the picture to the immediate left it appears that Maren might be doing a little cramming for a test ...!

Student Council sent Terry Minor, Kay Trudell, Bob Curtis, and Tom Simons to Greece, New York to observe the Greece High School. While they were there, they visited with Mr. Trudell, former principal of Marine City High, and brought back some ideas for better student government. Other projects that the student council undertook this year were the modification of the dress code, and a taste of real adult government such as working with the community on the all important millage issue.

National Honor Society

Every year the National Honor Society introduces the new members by holding a tea in their honor. In addition to the tea, new members are installed during a special all-school assembly held each Spring.

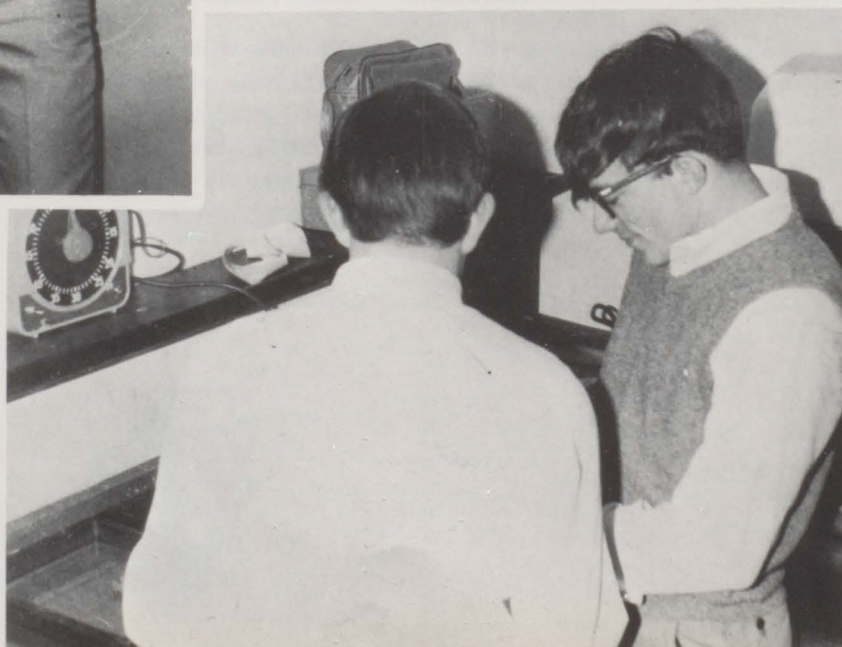

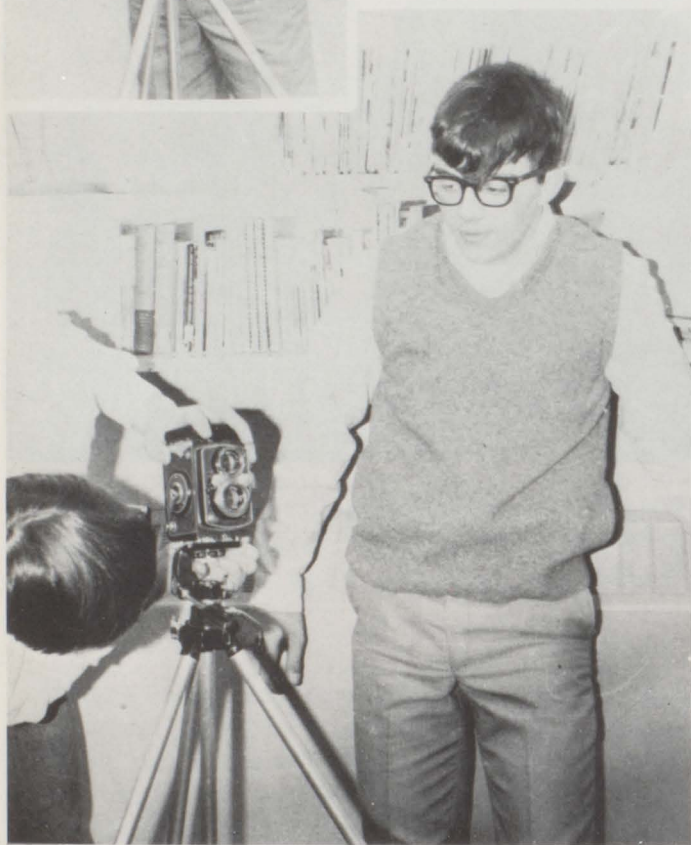

The National Honor Society is one of the oldest high school clubs nationally, and is well known for its purpose in recognizing the outstanding scholastic accomplishments of our Country's young men and women.

Photography Class

This years' photography class was taught by Mr. Wayne Ferriby. Some of the projects that the students completed were note books with sequence pictures depicting a central theme. As an example, one student covered the marketing process of meat processing, from slaughtering to retail sales. Other projects included photographing stills to action pictures. The yearbook staff is indebted to Mr. Ferriby and his class for the many fine pictures that were used throughout the book.

ORGANIZATIONS

8-Ball Club

L-R: Rick Nichols, Joe Balaker, George Bukowski, Mrs. Young, Rob Holland, Richard DeMeyer, Larry Shackett.

The Marine City High Eight-Ball Club members were the johnny-on-the-spot, boys again this year, with their numerous contributions of time and effort to the smooth running operations of our school. Setting up the stage for the basketball games, setting up chairs for assemblies, and Dee Jaying for the record dances were among the many things performed by Mrs. Young's boys.

Marine City High Boating Club

CLUB OFFICERS

Vice-Commodore: Dan Liebaert, Commodore: Duane Jones,
Rear-Commodore: Debbie DeCou.

F.F.A.

The Future Farmers' Club participated in the annual Blue Water Debate competition, and did quite well, carrying away top honors. Other projects this year included sponsoring a dance with a live band, and sponsoring the annual basketball game between the F.F.A. boys and the G.A.A. girls.

Trampoline Club

The Trampoline Club was formed this year for boys and girls who like learning and performing more advanced stunts on the trampoline. Because of the wide interest of students and the enjoyment of nearly everyone for it, some restrictions as to membership would have to be made to keep the club from becoming too large. It was decided that in order for girls to qualify for membership, a candidate would have to be able to perform a knee-flip, swivel-hips, turntable, and a back pull-over. For boys, a front flip, back flip, baroni, 1 1/4 front flip, and a cradle twist was the requirement.

Besides meeting every Thursday during a special open lab, several members gave a performance at a basketball halftime.

G.A.A.

This year has been a very busy one for G.A.A. members. In October three teams traveled to Algonac for the annual soccer tournament. After a hard played and much spirited game, the girls squared danced in the gym and then had dinner. In February, Marine City hosted a basketball tournament with seven schools represented. Various recreational games were provided for the teams who lost out in the early rounds, and Mrs. Chiti and her staff served dinner to the hungry girls and their sponsors after the tournament.

This Spring, G.A.A. members travel to St. Clair for a volleyball playday, and then hope to cap the year off with a track and field playday at either Cros-Lex, or Chippewa Valley, weather permitting.

Varsity Club

Highlights of the Varsity Club activities for this year included a hilarious night involved with a Donkey Basketball game.

The Mariner sports were well represented by many lettermen, including some who will be graduating this year.

MAYOR LaBUHN
AND CITY COMMISSION

At the beginning of the school year I was asked to write up a full page of whatever I wanted. I thought to myself "I'll never think of a full page." Surprisingly enough there's more to say then there is room so I'll start off by giving thanks to those who deserve it. A very special thanks goes to our advisor, Miss Lownsbury. I would like to thank her for all her hard work. Without her help we couldn't have done it. Another thanks goes to all the business people who bought ads. We appreciated it much more than you think. Next, I would like to thank the students, faculty and everyone else who let us take their beautiful (?) pictures.

There's been a lot of fun times. I've enjoyed working with the staff and I hope that next year's editor will be as proud of the staff as I have been with this year's.

I hope you enjoy this yearbook as much as I've enjoyed working on it.

Sincerely yours,

Wanda Mapwell
